

Communicating in the Workplace Workshop

Essential Skills Manitoba

Communicating in the Workplace builds teamwork skills and gain a solid understanding of workplace expectations. Effectively communicating and collaborating are high priority skills identified by today's employers.

This workshop is a 1-week commitment

This workshop
can be done online or in-person.

What should I expect?

Communicating in the Workplace provides an understanding of today's workplace expectations with a focus on communication and teamwork skills. Many practical strategies will be shared that you can use on the job.

This service includes;

- An orientation to get you started.
- 6 modules:
 - Thriving in the Ever-Changing Workplace
 - Communicating for Workplace Success
 - Navigating Conflict Module
 - Respectful Workplace
 - A Mindset for Success in the Workplace
 - Putting it Together

Who will benefit from taking this workshop?

✓ Those getting ready to move into employment or are beginning job search activities

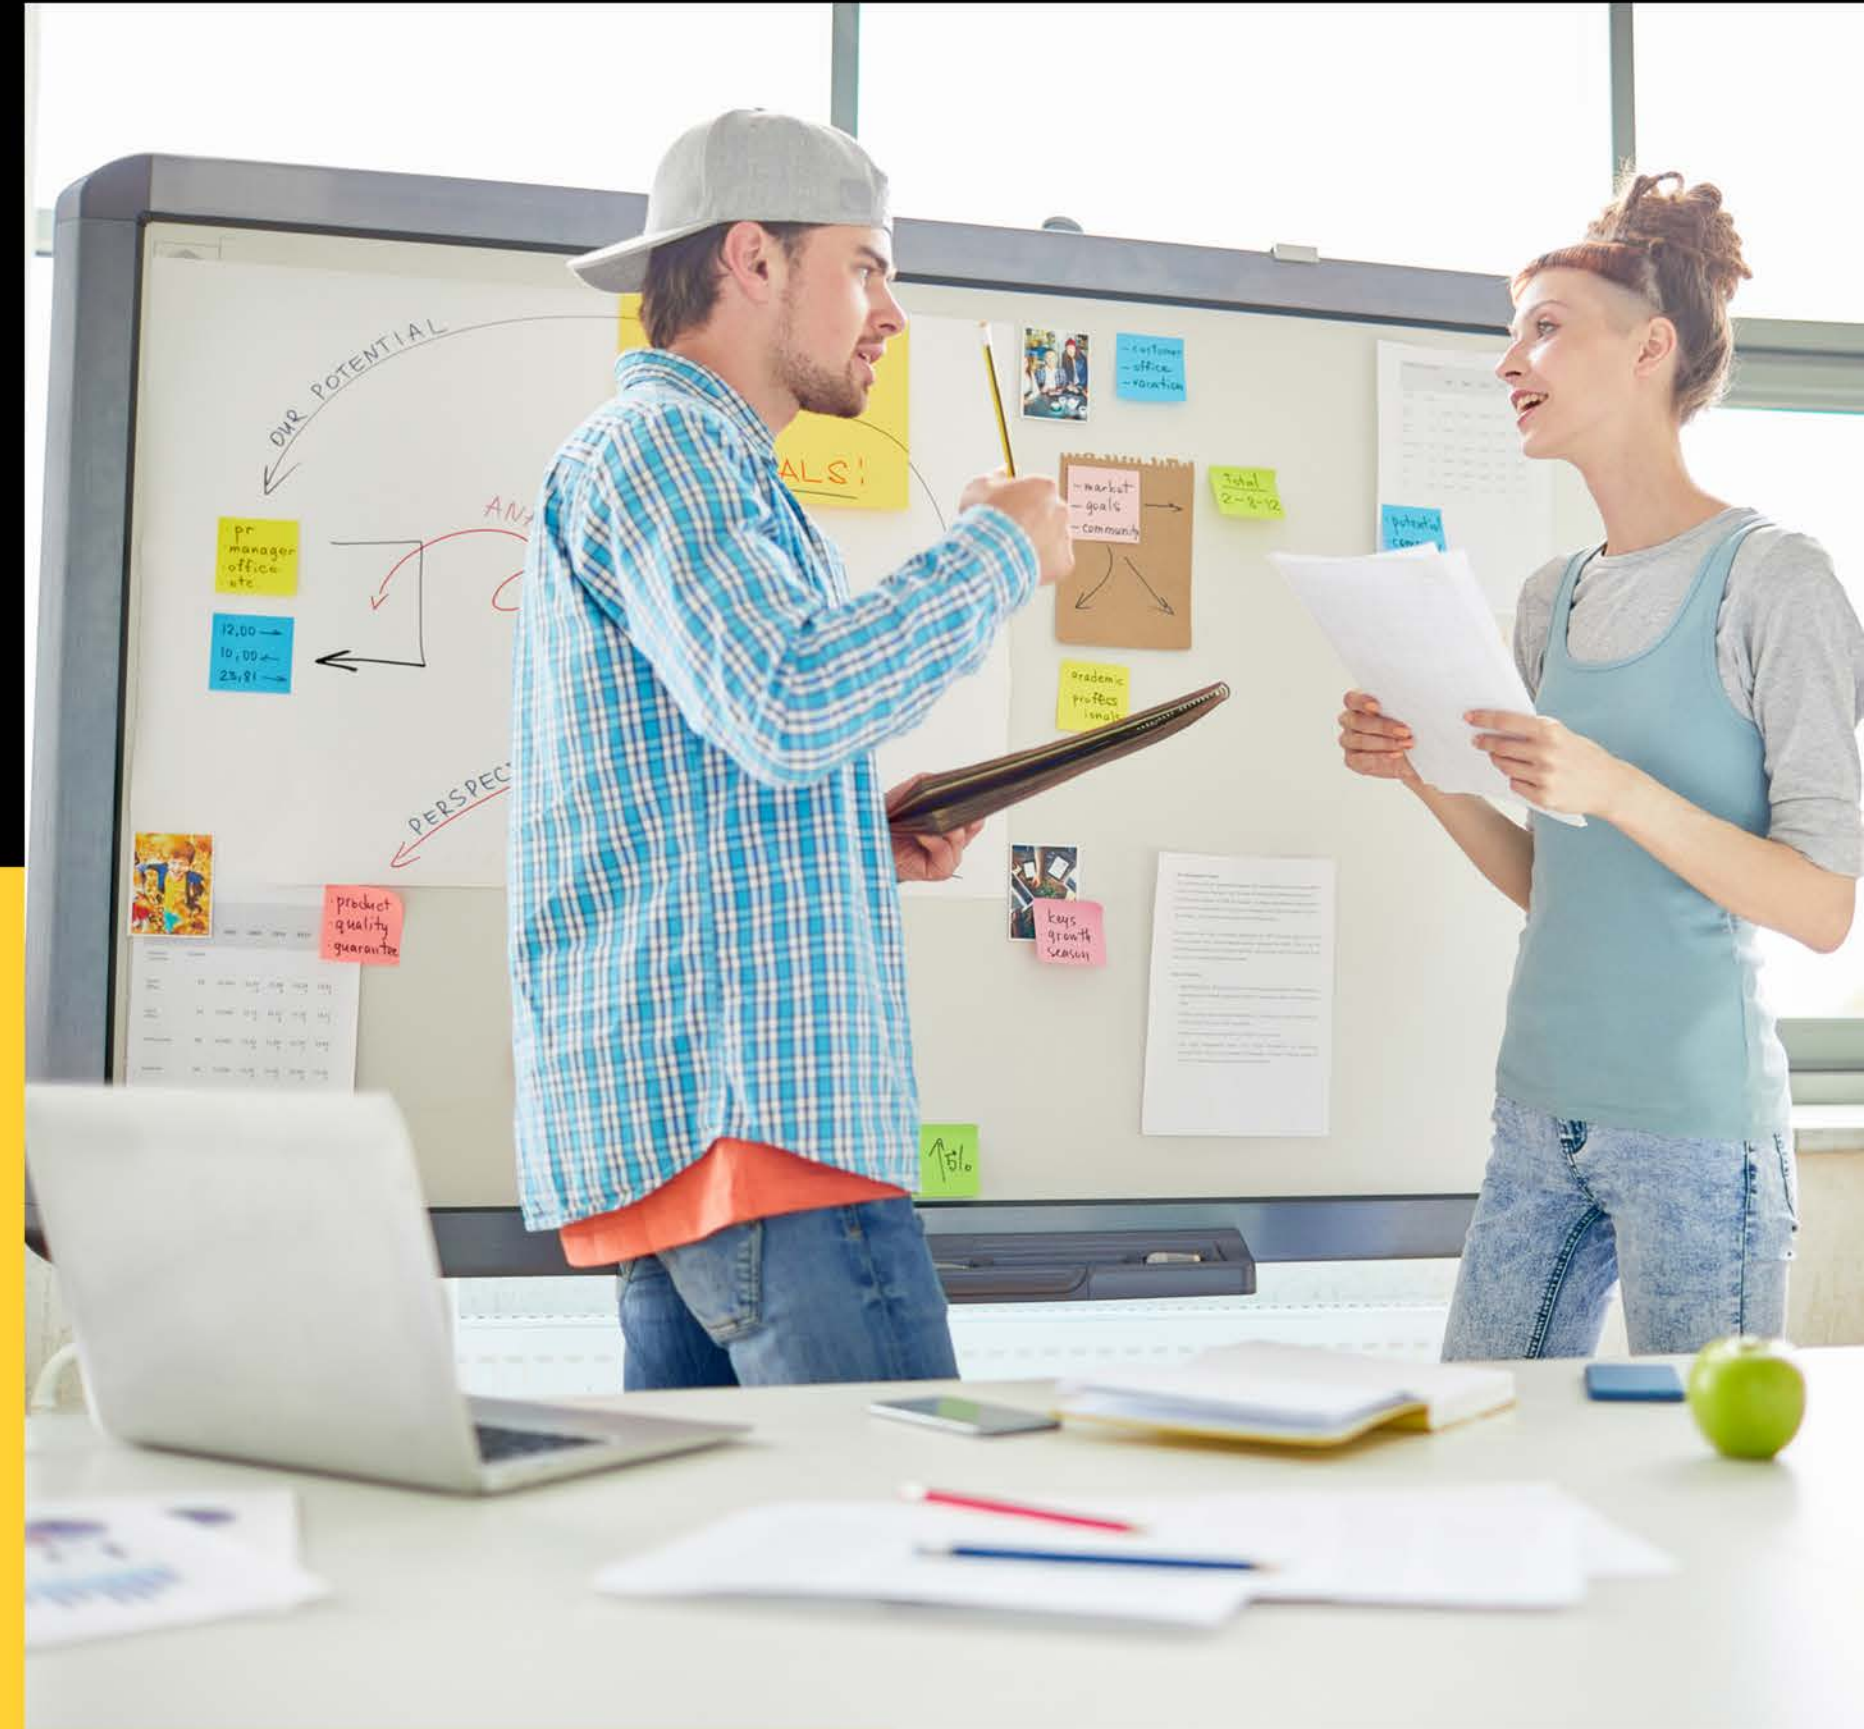

✓ Those who want a better understanding of what to expect in today's workplace

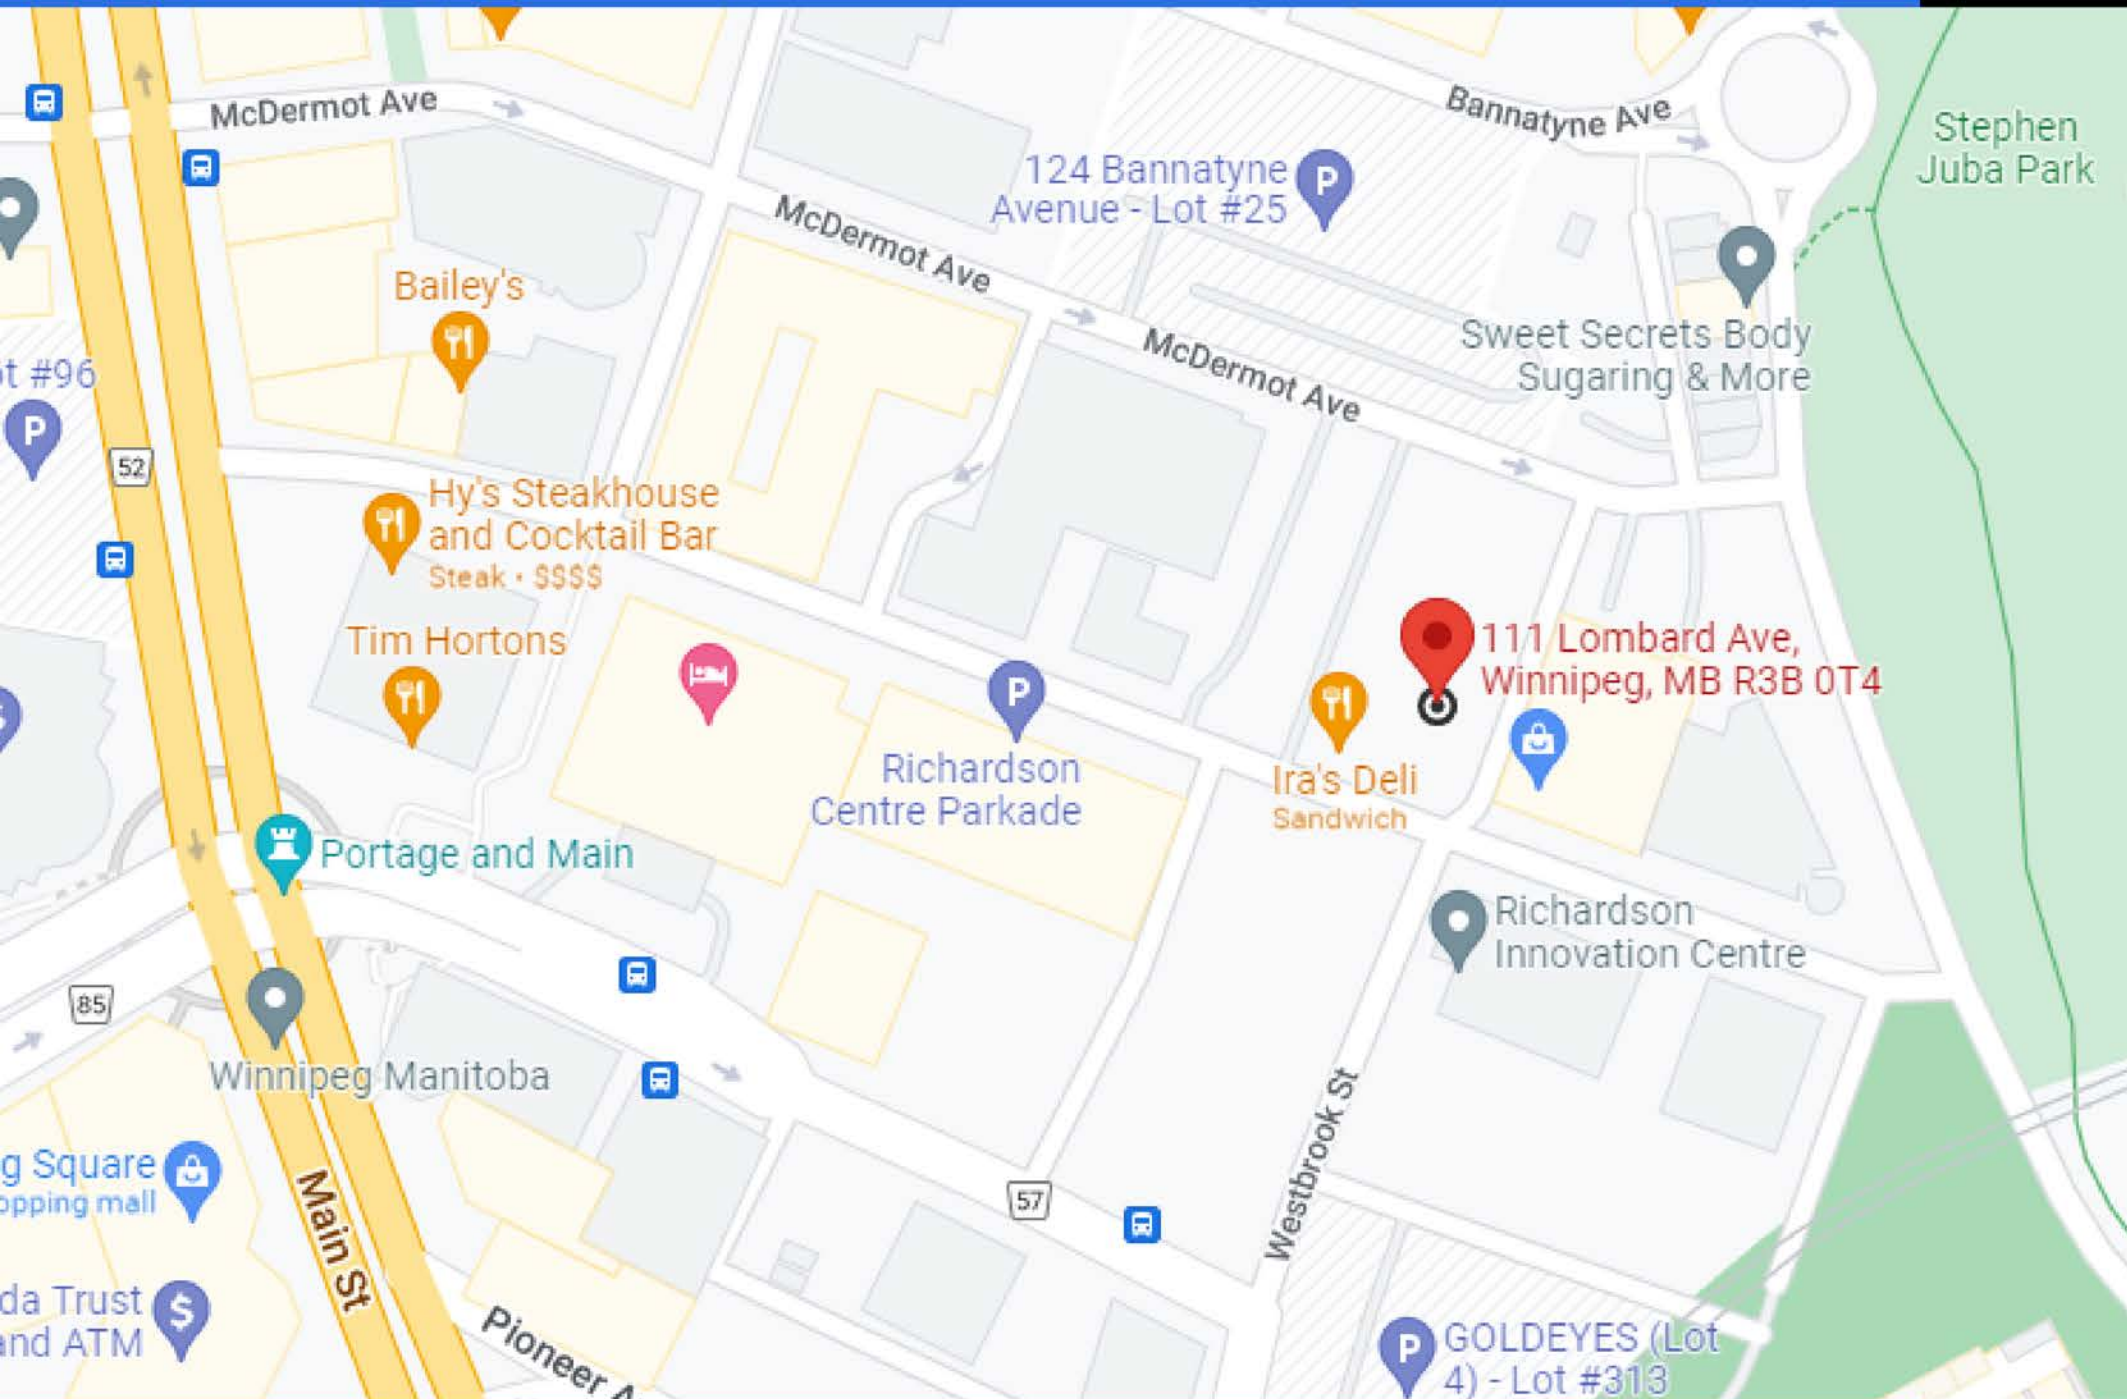

✓ Those wanting to brush up on communication and teamwork skills for success in the workplace

✓ Those that want to develop their own personal 'toolkit' of practical strategies to use on the job

Available online or in person

Get started today!

Contact us at

info@esmanitoba.ca

or call 204-282-9980

