

REACH FORWARD

Personal Management Basics and Employability Program

Focusing on the development of employability skills, essential skills for work, and personal management basics, this program is designed to assist participants in achieving sustainable, long-term employment

Those that will benefit:

- Have identified a job goal
- Are in transition from occupational training to employment
- Want to transition from one type of employment to another
- Want to build their self-confidence

204-282-9980

esmanitoba.ca

referral@esmanitoba.ca